Happy Holidays from the staff of the Gymnastics Club! December is a very busy month for everyone. Here is all the information you will need to be well informed!

PARENT NIGHT

Parent Night for December will be Wednesday, December 14 for the Monday and Wednesday classes and Thursday, December 15 for the Tuesday and Thursday classes. Bring your cameras and enjoy watching your child receive a special award for all of their hard work!

LAST DAY OF CLASS

The last day of regular gymnastics classes and cheerleading will be Thursday, Dec 22.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY

GYMNASTICS

PRACTICES

The Gymnastics Club will be open for our "Special Holiday Practices"

On

December 27-28-29

from 5:30-7:00. All kids currently enrolled in our program, are invited to an extra holiday gymnastics workout. All the kids will get to do the things they love the most. Come to one or all three of the extra classes. If your child is under the age of 5, a parent will need to accompany them. This is a great opportunity for your kids to do gymnastics and for the parents to go out to dinner!

CLASSES START BACK ON JANUARY 3

ConocoPhillips Gymnastics will start back up with regular gymnastics classes on Tuesday, January 3, 2012.

The staff of ConocoPhillips Gymnastics would like to wish everyone a very Happy Holiday Season.
